

The Harmony District comprised the northern part of today's Fishers Landing. In 1885, George A. Whipple built the first Harmony School on his 200-acre farm and taught the initial class of students. The first Boy Scout troop in Clark County was organized in the Harmony area with Lloyd Whipple serving as scoutmaster. The first Harmony School doubled as a Sunday school.